

Sudipta Ghosh is originally from Kolkata (formerly Calcutta), India. During his career over 21 years, he worked in multicultural environments in India, USA and UK. He runs an Information Technology Consultancy business providing services to multinational clients in Banking & Finance, Health and Manufacturing & Retail sector.

Academically, he holds a Bachelor degree in Electronics & Tele-Communication Engineering and a number of professional qualifications in finance and business management. His professional interests involve Entrepreneurship, Strategy & Leadership, Cost Efficiency.

Sudipta has been a resident of Enfield for more than 15 years and is married with 2 children; his personal interests include Cricket, Football, Chess & Photography. Inspired by his parents, he is passionate about the education of underprivileged children and the well-being of elderly people. He feels himself privileged to serve EPC